

Cal/EPA Clean Air Celebration, Transportation Fair and Sacramento Bike Fest May 20, 2004

The Air Resources Board (ARB) is hosting the Cal/EPA Clean Air Celebration, Transportation Fair and Sacramento's Bike Fest on May 20th, from 11:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., at the Cal/EPA Headquarters Building at 1001 I Street. This annual event promotes alternative modes of transportation and the preservation of air quality. The Sacramento Bike Fest, an annual event of the Sacramento Area Bicycle Advocates (SABA), will feature free bike checks/minor repairs, bike shop representatives, clubs, and information about cycling. Welcoming remarks to start at 12 Noon and the Clean Air Ride Around the Capitol at 12:30 p.m. Free valet bicycle parking will be available.

There will also be a special presentation that evening at the Cal/EPA building in the Sierra Hearing Room, 2nd floor, at 7:00 p.m. Professor John Pucher, from the Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy at Rutgers University (New Brunswick, New Jersey) will discuss cycling in America. Hosted by ARB and SABA, this presentation is an opportunity to learn from an international expert on how European policies and facilities boost cycling and how cycling can be increased in America.

For more information about the event contact Marie Schelling, ARB's Employee Transportation Coordinator, at 322-8195 or mschelli@arb.ca.gov.
